

The Crossroads Farmers Market multi-farm CSA is back!

25 weeks: June 1st through November 16th

Application Deadline: May 27th

What is included?

With the Crossroads multi-farm CSA, you'll get items from local farms who sell at the 2016 Crossroads Farmers Market, including Owl's Nest Farm, Tuckey's Mountain Grown, Smith Meadows Kitchen, and Suttler Post Farm – who all use natural/organically oriented and/or low spray orchard methods. Shares include vegetables, herbs, fruit, homemade pasta, coffee, free-range meat and eggs, flowers, and more!

How much does it cost?

The cost of each share is $22 per week for the base produce share, with the opportunity to add on additional items such as coffee, eggs, flowers, and handmade kitchen products. Committing to the 25-week base share is required for signup. Shares are ideal for 2-4 people, so consider splitting a share with a friend, neighbor, or coworker. Participants prepay for the 25-week subscription via check. Worried about missing a week? Have a friend or neighbor pick up your share for you, or consider donating that week's produce!

Where do I get it?

Pick up your share on Wednesdays from June 1st through November 16th at one of the following locations:

- Crossroads Farmers Market at Anne Street (12-4pm)
- Hodges Lane at Holly Avenue (2-9pm)
- Oswego Avenue/ Maple Avenue (City employees only) (2-6pm)
- Takoma Business Center 6930 Carroll Avenue (2-6pm)
- 7914 Long Branch Parkway (2-9pm)

Crossroads Farmers Market
Wednesdays, 11am-3pm
Anne St. @ University Boulevard
Takoma Park (across from Rite Aid)

Please contact Michelle at mdudley@crossroadscommunityfoodnetwork.org with any questions. Thank you for supporting Crossroads and your local food system!